

EIGHTH BIENNIAL CONFERENCE OF THE CHICAGO AREA
CONSORTIUM IN ANCIENT GREEK AND ROMAN PHILOSOPHY

REPRESENTATION, EMOTION,
& COGNITION
OCTOBER 1 – 2, 2010

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 1
Northwestern University
John Evans Alumni Center
Evanston

2.00-3.45
Speaker: Mark Schiefsky
(Harvard University)
“Criteria of Truth in Later Greek
Science and Philosophy”
Commentator: John Wynne
(Northwestern University)

4.00-5.45
Speaker: Verity Harte
(Yale University)
“Mixed Emotions in Plato’s Philebus”
Commentator: Agnes Callard
(University of Chicago)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2
University of Illinois at Chicago
Institute for the Humanities

8.30-9.00 Coffee and rolls

9.00-10.45
Speaker: David Charles
(Oriel College, Oxford)
“Aristotle on Practical knowledge and Eupraxia”
Commentator: Gabriel Richardson Lear
(University of Chicago)

11.00-12.45
Speaker: Katja Vogt
(Columbia University)
“Why Beliefs Are Never True:
A Reconstruction of Stoic Epistemology”
Commentator: Baron Reed
(Northwestern University)

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 2
CONTINUED
University of Chicago
Franke Institute for the Humanities

1.15-2.00 Catered lunch

2.00-3.45
Speaker: Victor Caston
(University of Michigan)
“Higher-Order Awareness in Alexander of Aphrodisias”
Commentator: David Ebrey
(Northwestern University)

4.00-5.45
Speaker: Calvin Normore
(UCLA)
“Augustine and later authors on attention and choice”
Commentator: Georgette Sinkler
(University of Illinois at Chicago )

FOR MORE INFORMATION AND TO REGISTER, VISIT
groups.philosophy.northwestern.edu/greek-roman/CACAP8/index.html

CONFERENCE COORDINATOR: MATTHEW MULLINS
m-mullins@u.northwestern.edu or (847) 491-3656

Please contact the event sponsor(s) if you require assistance to fully participate in this event.