The Problem of Non-Discursive Thought
FROM GOETHE TO WITTGENSTEIN

Supported by Andrew W. Mellon Foundation

Swift Hall 3rd fl Lecture Room, 1025 E 58th

Sponsored by the Humanities Division, Franke Institute for the Humanities, Interdisciplinary Center for Research on German Literature & Culture, University of Chicago Wittgenstein Workshop

For more information contact Thomas Land, tcland@uchicago.edu. Persons requiring assistance please call 773-702-8274 in advance.

FRIDAY 10am OPENING 1030 E FOERSTER Intuitive understanding in Plato's Phaedrus 2pm H GINSBORG Aesthetic judgment & perceptual normativity 430 J VOGL Goethe on colors

SATURDAY 10am T PINKARD Hegelian life forms 2pm J SNYDER Francis Galton & Étienne-Jules Marey: Photographing genres & laws of nature 430 E FRIEDLANDER The measure of the contingent: Walter Benjamin's dialectical image

SUNDAY 10am J MCDOWELL Conceptual capacities & perception 2pm R PIPPIN Ordinary self-knowledge in James's What Maisie Knew 430 M THOMPSON Practical knowledge